Integrated Language Arts-

I have been reading Beverly Cleary's The Mouse and the Motorcycle to the kids everyday and they LOVED it!! So, we borrowed the VHS (tells you how old it is...circa 1980 or 1990!) and watched it as our FUN FRIDAY--just had to share how sweet they were as they made huge connections to the book! I am so proud of what great thinkers and listeners they are!!

We are really enjoying the Wizard Of Oz!! We are finishing the book Monday and plan to watch the original movie on Tuesday. This story has been a good introduction to cause/effect relationships. We will also be reading "If You Give a Mouse a Cookie"! Throughout the week, we will practice other cause/effect activities, as well as identify feelings that the characters are experiencing.

Fundations-We continue practicing the v-e pattern and how the "sneaky e" makes the vowel say its name and adding the suffix -s to these new syllables. Our test will be Friday, May 17th.

Reading Logs are due on Friday!

Friends-This week we will read "Going Places" by Peter Reynolds. The story is about thinking outside the box and changing competitiveness to cooperation

Math-Just a reminder, if you haven't sent in your child's GO Math Practice book, please do asap. We plan to use the end of the year lessons at the back of the book for the next couple of weeks. Thanks!!
