Integrated Language Arts-

This week we will study how authors write narratives. We will be reading "When the Relatives Came, Snowy Day, Roller Coaster and other stories to see how authors and illustrators communicate with readers. We are beginning to explore writing our own personal narratives!

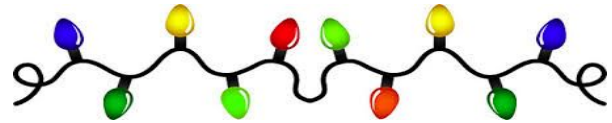

Foundations-Tuesday we will pretest for Units 7-9. If your child scores a 90% on both lists, you will receive a note and he/she will work on alternate activities during our Foundations lessons. We begin Unit 7 Tuesday. It focuses on glued sounds ending with -ng/-nk. Our test will be Friday, Dec. 14th.

*November reading logs are due Friday.

Math- We are finishing Ch.3. Our test will be given on Thursday. We will pretest Ch. 4 on Friday. Make sure you practice the strategies we have been learning in class!

Our FRIENDS time includes our calendar meeting, Student of the Week activities, stories & discussions about character/friendship, and visits from Mrs. Neff. Last week we discussed internet safety and the students brought home an Internet Safety Pledge for you to sign and return. Thank you!!
