Integrated Language Arts-

We have selected our favorite Americans and began researching them. We will begin creating our lapbook project this week. It will contain facts we learn, as well as our written opinion about why they are our favorites! We will share them on Thursday, Feb. 22nd. This year we will dress like our favorite American. I will send more info about this soon, but it is my plan to keep it SiMpLe:)

Fundations-We are starting Unit 10 this week! We will practice reading and writing words with 5 sounds. This is a three week unit.

Reading Logs-Please return Reading logs on THURSDAY this week! Thanks:)

Friends-As we learn about searching World Book Kids and Epic! for information about our favorite people, we will be talking about keyword searches and trustworthy sites (ours are navigated through the Jackson Elementary Library page).

Math-We will be starting Ch. 5 this week. The chapter focuses on addition and subtraction relationships. We will complete lessons 5.1-5.3.
