

Week at a Glance

AP English Language and Composition

Mr. Gillette

March 30 – April 3

Hi, all! Make sure to check Google Classroom for Sunday's update e-mail regarding the documentary. Here's the plan for our first week back.

Hang in there...

Monday, March 30

- For Friday, please read George Orwell's "A Hanging" (attached in Google Classroom)

Tuesday, March 31

- Read and think about "A Hanging" for discussion.

Wednesday, April 1

- I'll send out a short practice AP Objective today, to be completed in Google Classroom. Please complete by the end of the day today.

Thursday, April 2

- Prepare thoughts on "A Hanging" by George Orwell.
- Keep your eyes peeled for the choice writing assignment (due Monday, April 9).

Friday, April 3

- Online roundtable over "A Hanging" (submit comments by end of day).
- Essays due Monday, April 9

Standards we will be covering this week:

- Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and task.
- Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
- Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
