

Week at a Glance

AP English Language and Composition

Mr. Gillette

March 9 – March 13

Ahoy, all! We'll revisit rhetorical analysis this week, with some focus on the AP Test on Tuesday, but with more open-ended, engaging source material on Wednesday and Thursday.

Monday, March 9 NOTE: I'm out today for meetings. See you Tuesday!

- Roots Quiz (you can work with a partner, but please spread out and whisper)

Tuesday, March 10

- Distribute next unit of Roots
- Rhetorical analysis refresher using our beloved student samples.

Wednesday, March 11

- Rhetorical analysis, continued.
- Analyzing various clips, recapturing some of the language of rhetorical analysis.

Thursday, March 12

- Rhetorical analysis of short, famous texts.

Friday, March 13

- Documentary film workday. Work with your groups to plan/schedule/secure interviews for your documentaries.

Standards we will be covering this week:

- Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and task.
- Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
- Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
