

Week at a Glance

AP English Language and Composition

Mr. Gillette

May 11 – May 15

Week seven hundred thousand of eLearning! We're almost there. Good luck on all of your tests this week, and especially on the AP English Essay next week. The AP English Awards Ceremony will take place next week!

Monday, May 11

- Everyone: take this week to review at your own pace. Go over old rhetorical analysis essays from the links I sent you. Work through that giant packet from the beginning of the year, if you so desire, too. Also, please work on your outside reading video, which is due no later than May 22.

Tuesday, May 12

- Work on outside reading.
- Check Google Classroom for the discussion of the week topic.

Wednesday, May 13

- Work on outside reading,

Thursday, May 14

- Work on rhetorical analysis or discussion topic.

Friday, May 15

- Submit thoughts on Roundtable by 11:59 p.m.
- Work on your outside reading presentations.

Standards we will be covering this week:

- Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and task.
- Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
- Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
