

Week at a Glance

AP English Language and Composition

Mr. Gillette

Sept. 30 – Oct. 4

This week, we'll start talking about Pop Culture a bit. To what extent, do you think, does pop culture reflect our society's values?

Monday, Sept. 30

- Distribute list of tone words.
- Introduce name that tone assignment for tomorrow.
- Time to work.
- HW: For Friday, read “High-School Confidential: Notes on Teen Movies” by David Denby (709-714). No need to ANSWER the questions on Rhetoric and Style, but definitely think about them as you prepare for discussion. Roundtable on Friday.

Tuesday, Oct. 1

- NAME! THAT! TONE!

Wednesday, Oct. 2

- Distribute Roots for Unit 2 (quiz next Tuesday)
- A word about AP Classroom: A great resource for extra help and preparation for the test.
- First assignment in AP Classroom given.
- Time to work in class.

Thursday, Oct. 3

- Rhetorical Analysis FRQ

Friday, Oct. 4

- Roundtable over David Denby's “High School Confidential”

Standards we will be covering this week:

- Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and task.
- Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
- Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
