Week at a Glance

English 10

Mr. Gillette

Dec. 16 – Dec. 20

Have a wonderful, restful break. Chip away at your choice reading books, and don't forget that your essays will be due on Friday, Jan. 10. We'll go over the guidelines on Wednesday.

Monday, Dec. 16

- Small group discussions over your choice reading books.
- Make sure to come to class prepared to discuss your roles.

Tuesday, Dec. 17

- Midterm examination.

Wednesday, Dec. 18

- Distribute and review guidelines for choice reading book essays.
- Reading day for choice books.

Thursday, Dec. 19

- Review midterms answers.

Friday, Dec. 20

- NOTE: Finish outside reading books over break. Be ready for group discussions over whole book when we get back. Papers will be due on Friday, Jan. 10.
- Reading day for choice books.

Standards we will be covering this week:

- Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and task.
- Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
- Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
