Happy new year, all! What better way to ring in the new year than by paying tribute to some sweet old literature? We'll explore Transcendentalism and Romanticism over the next few weeks. Side note: Of everything we read this year, you may just find that you're able to relate to this bunch the most.

Tuesday, Jan. 7

- A day to work on your book reviews.

Wednesday, Jan. 8

- A day to work on your book reviews.

Thursday, Jan. 9

- Introduction to Transcendentalism

Friday, Jan. 10

: Don't forget that Book Critiques are due tonight by 11:59 p.m. to the assignment tab in Google Classroom.

- Introduction to Transcendentalism (continued).

Standards we will be covering this week:

- Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and task.
- Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
- Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
