Grading Policy

Students in Physical Education are graded on the 'S' and the 'U' system. Three unexcused non-dress days will result in an unsatisfactory grade for the nine weeks. The students will be evaluated and graded in the following areas:

1. Activity Participation
2. Skills Assessments
3. Sportsmanship
4. Cooperation
5. Dress
6. No Bullying or criticizing other students

Attendance

Physical Education is unique from other educational programs in that participation in activities and attendance are basic fundamental parts of the learning process.

Excused Illnesses

1. Students are excused from participation with a valid note from a parent/guardian.
2. Excuses longer than two days must be written by a doctor. These excuses must state the nature of limitations and length of time excused. Prolonged absences or non-participation will be dealt with on an individual basis by the P.E. staff and administration. Students must have a release from parents or doctor to return to participate in physical activity after being off for extended time due to injury or illness.
3. Written assignments will still be required.

Tardies

Students must report to attendance lines when signaled to do so. If a student is late to their attendance line they will be marked tardy for the class. Three tardies will result in a detention.
