

If Parenthood Required A License...

Imagine that a law has been passed requiring people to get licenses before becoming parents. You have been hired to decide who should get licenses and on what basis. Write down the questions below and fill in your best responses to explain who will qualify for a license.

1. Will you have an age stipulation? If no, explain why not. If yes, give the age range and explain why you chose this age range
2. Will you have an education requirement? If no, explain why not. If yes, give the educational background and explain why you chose this.
3. Will you have financial requirements? If no, explain why not. If yes, give the financial requirements needed and explain why you chose this.
4. What are three other requirements, skills, or traits you would require from prospective parents? Explain why you chose these requirements.
