Consent form to release academic records

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) protects the privacy of records that are maintained by educational institutions that receive federal funds in the form of educational grants or loans. FERPA dictates that school personnel must not release this information outside of the school system. This includes, but is not limited to, financial aid, health concerns, and the balance in your account. FERPA also protects the privacy of students' names, addresses, telephone numbers, dates of birth, and other personally identifiable information. FERPA also allows certain information to be released in life-threatening situations. FERPA also allows certain information about students and residents on a campus to be released.

By checking the box below, you represent that you are providing consent to release your educational records to the State of South Carolina. Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, all transcript requests MUST BE MADE BY THE STUDENT OR A DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE (including parents). It is the responsibility of the educational institution to release the records to others, including the release of computer login usernames and passwords, etc.

Please visit the U.S. Department of Education's FERPA page for more information.
