

Introduction to Performing Arts
Semester Exam- 1st Semester

Your semester exam will be comprised of 50 questions. They will all be multiple choice & matching. The exam covers the entire first semester of the course, so expect material from every unit we have covered. Below there is a list of the vocabulary you should study in preparation for the exam. You should know the definition of the words, as well as the concepts that relate to the terms.

Units

I. Communication Process

sender
receiver
channel
feedback
interference
 *external *internal listening
 *know what makes a good listener
 *listening vs. hearing talking interpersonal intrapersonal

Types of interpersonal communication
-one on one communication
-group communication
-mass communication
-public communication

II. Delivering your speech

Types of Speech Delivery
-impromptu speaking
-extemporaneous speaking
-manuscript delivery
-memorization delivery

Types of speeches
-Speeches to inform
-Speeches to persuade
-Speeches to entertain

Presenting your Speech
-volume
-pitch
-pause
-vocalized pauses
-pronunciation
-monotone
-dialect

- correct posture for a speaker
- correct use of a podium or lectern
- correct use of note cards when delivering a speech

III. Organizing your speech

introduction

- know all the elements of an introduction
- know the types of attention devices
- thesis statement

body

- main headings
- supporting materials
- details

conclusion

- restated thesis
- concluding technique

using research in a speech

IV. Performing Arts

Definition of performing arts

Areas of performing arts

- music
- instrumental
- vocal
- dance
- theatre

V. Demonstration and Informative speeches

Dead air

Techniques for delivering a demonstration speech

How to use a visual aid effectively

Citing sources in a speech